Meagan Iafrate is the Operations Manager at Elevate, where she brings a wealth of expertise in risk management, backed by a Bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma and her Associate in Captive Insurance (ACI).

In her role, Meagan oversees the account management and service requirements for each captive, ensuring attention to detail and seamless coordination with service providers.

Based in the charming town of Granbury, TX, just southwest of the DFW metroplex, Meagan efficiently manages her responsibilities while cherishing quality time with her husband, beloved dog, and charming flock of chickens.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Meagan finds joy in baking. She loves experimenting in the kitchen and has a special knack for whipping up batches of everyone's favorite treat: chocolate chip cookies.
